UB LSAMP SUMMER RESEARCH PROGRAM

May 25—August 5, 2016
University at Buffalo

10-WEEK INTENSIVE SUMMER RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Eligibility
• Undergraduates who have completed a minimum of 30 credits
• GPA 2.8 or better
• Demonstrate serious research interests in a STEM discipline
• Must be US Citizen or Permanent Resident
• Committed to increasing the number of underrepresented (African-American, Latino/a and Native American) students in STEM disciplines

APPLICATION PROCESS:
The last date to submit a completed Summer Research Program application is February 26, 2016.

Please include:
• Summer Program Application
• 2 completed faculty, staff and/or advisor recommendations
• Resume/CV
• Typed personal statement
• Official College/University Transcript(s) (University at Buffalo students do not need to provide a transcript)

For more information, contact
Dr. Letitia Thomas: lthomas@buffalo.edu

APPLY AT OUR WEBSITE:
http://cpmc.buffalo.edu/ubstem/lsampsummer.php

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:
• 10-week National Science Foundation (NSF) summer internship for undergraduates in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM)
• Participation in oral and/or poster presentations at the national UB Undergraduate Research Conference
• Research Methods Seminar
• Weekly “soft skills” workshops
• LSAMP Research Symposium poster presentation

BENEFITS:
• UB Faculty Research Mentor
• $4,000 stipend
• $250 Campus Cash Allowance
• Graduate School Preparation
• Paid Registration for the UB Undergraduate Research Conference in Niagara Falls, NY (a $475 value!)
• Conference Survival Kit
• Community Service Activities
• Tours of STEM industries